

Prepare for your next conference

MK303

Finally, after all your hard work, your research results are ready to be presented. This is your opportunity to build a reputation in international research circles. A professional presentation at an international conference is critical to your success. In this workshop you will learn to present your research convincingly and confidently in the English language.

The following topics will be covered:

- Gaining and maintaining audience attention
- Adapting a written source to a presentation context
- Structuring your presentations clearly with discourse markers
- Improving delivery: intonation, pace, word stress
- Interacting with your audience in the Q&A session
- Useful phrases for every stage of the presentation

Duration of training: 09:00 a.m. - 04:30 p.m.
